Date	Location	Time	Event
03/20/19	Ann Arbor Library	7:00 PM	Peter D. Hart: “The 2020 Election: The Challenges and Changes Facing Political Polling.” Join us as Peter D. Hart, leading public opinion expert and pollster, takes a fun and interactive look at the latest polling trends, while sharing insights about key changes, demographic information, and top issues the country needs to know. Special thanks to Albion College for the collaboration on this event. No reservations required, open seating, and reception following the presentation.
03/25/19	Grand Rapids Museum	7:00 PM	David Hume Kennerly: “Extraordinary Circumstances: The Presidency of Gerald R. Ford.” Please join us in welcoming Pulitzer Prize winning photographer David Hume Kennerly in conjunction with the opening of the Museum’s newest exhibit “Extraordinary Circumstances: The Presidency of Gerald R. Ford.” Mr. Kennerly served as White House photographer for President Gerald R. Ford. A must-see exhibit of images personally selected by Mr. Kennerly creating what he calls “a close-up portrait of President Ford’s humanity.” Special guest Susan Ford Bales will join Mr. Kennerly for a discussion. Dessert reception and exhibit tour following the discussion. Special thanks to the Frey Foundation and Bank of America for support of the exhibit! No cost to attend. Reservations required by calling 616-254-0384 or emailing ford_events@nara.gov . Free parking.
04/17/19	Grand Rapids Museum	7:00 PM	James D. Hornfischer: “Total War in the Pacific, 1944-1945, The Decision to Drop the Bomb.” James D. Hornfischer will cover the crescendo of U.S. operations in the Central Pacific, covering the air, land, and sea operations that seized the Mariana Islands of Saipan, Tinian, and Guam, the strategic air operations conducted from the Marianas that ended the war, and the reckoning of the occupation that foreshadowed 42 years of the Cold War. Special thanks to the Armed Forces Thanksgiving for support of this event. No cost to attend. Reservations required by calling 616-254-0384 or emailing ford_events@nara.gov . Free parking.
04/29/19 04/30/19	Grand Rapids Museum Ann Arbor Library	7:00 PM	David Priess: “How to Get Rid of a President: History’s Guide to Removing Unpopular, Unable, or Unfit Chief Executives.” Join former CIA insider and author David Priess as he showcases the political dark arts in action: a stew of election dramas, national tragedies, and presidential departures mixed with party intrigue, personal betrayal, and backroom shenanigans. No cost to attend events at the Museum or Library. No reservations are required at the Library. Reservations are required at the Museum by calling 616-254-0384 or emailing ford_events@nara.gov .

The Gerald R. Ford Presidential Foundation fosters increased awareness of the life, career, values and legacy of America’s 38th President. It does so through activities designed to promote the high ideals of integrity, honesty, and candor that defined President Ford’s extraordinary career of public service. The Foundation promotes the ideals, values, commitment to public service and historical legacy of President Gerald R. Ford and further promotes greater civic engagement and recognition of integrity wherever it exists in the public arena. It supports permanent and changing exhibits designed to promote historical literacy; conferences; educational outreach and other programs, both scholarly and popular, including at the Gerald R. Ford Library and Museum.
